

Film and Media Studies A.A. Degree

This program is designed to develop critical thinking and screenwriting skills while fostering a humanistic and social scientific understanding of the media. Students combine hands-on courses in scriptwriting, with critical studies of the visual media as an art form and social force. This major is particularly encouraged for students who intend to transfer to university film & media programs or pursue careers with high visual literacy, analytic, and writing skills. This map also meets the AA degree for Film/Digital Cinema Production.

Total Units: 60-62
