TRANSFER PATH

Potential Transfer Majors:

- History B.A.
- Social Science B.A.

Importance of Studying History:

The study of history equips students with cultural literacy while promoting critical thinking and nurturing well-informed perspectives of today's world.

Potential Career/Options After Completing a Bachelor's Degree:

Students with a Bachelor's degree in history are prepared to pursue careers in business, finance, journalism, historical preservation and restoration, curatorial work in museums and historical sites, film research, and a myriad of other career options requiring strong oral and written communication, analytical, and problem-solving skills. A Bachelor's degree in history prepares students to continue their education and ultimately pursue careers in education (elementary, secondary, and postsecondary levels), law, public history (archivists, curators), and a myriad of other professions requiring strong oral and written communication, analytical, and problem-solving skills.

Advising Notes:

- Students can substitute ESLW 340 for ENGWR 300/480.
- Students wishing to declare a major in history are encouraged to meet with a history professor, in addition
