TRANSFER PATH

Potential Transfer Majors:

This Area of Emphasis degree prepares students for a number of CSU majors related to women, gender, and LGBTQ studies, such as Women's Studies, Gender Studies, or Queer Studies.

Potential Career/Options After Completing a Bachelor's Degree:

Students with degrees in Gender Studies and related fields find careers as activists, community organizers, political campaigners, lobbyists, and mediators. They also work for human rights groups, religious organizations, and international agencies.

This program is also an excellent starting point for students interested in a career in law, law enforcement, social work, clinical psychology, politics, business, education, public policy, and any social science.

Advising Notes:

- Transferable Elective Courses: any elective courses numbered 300-499, or having a 4-digit number starting with C.
- This roadmap represents one way to complete this Area of Emphasis degree, with a focus on LGBTQ Studies.
- Students can complete this degree with other focus areas, such as Women's Studies or Gender Studies. See a counselor for advice on which transfer institutions offer programs in particular focus areas.

Other Notes to Students Preparing to Transfer:

- See ASSIST.ORG for the transfer requirements of the institution to which you plan to transfer.
- The CSU system requires every student receiving a bachelor's degree to be knowledgeable about the Constitution of the United States, American history, and state and local government. This requirement is generally known as the American Institutions requirement. Students can complete this requirement at ARC before transferring. See a counselor for a list of approved courses.

Honors Courses (H):

Students with a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or better who complete 15 or more units of Honors coursework earn an H onors Transfer Certificate and can take advantage of honors-to-honors transfer agreements with highly selective colleges and universities, both public and private.
