Advising Notes:

- This degree can be completed using either the local AA/AS general education (GE) pattern or the Cal-GETC transfer GE pattern. See a counselor to determine which pattern is best for you based on your academic goals.
- Students can substitute ESLW 340 for ENGL C1000/C1000H (formerly known as ENGWR 300/480).
- Transferable Elective Courses: any elective courses numbered 300-499, or having a 4-digit number starting with C.
- The anthropology courses can be taken in any order.
- ANTH 301 can be taken at the same time as ANTH 300/480, or in a later semester. Students are encouraged to take ANTH 300/480 as early as possible because ANTH 301 has fewer sections and may be harder to get into. If ANTH 301 is taken in a

¹ Anthropology is a broad field with many areas of interest. For general Anthropology degrees or transfer, there are many elective options available in numerous disciplines and students are encouraged to substitute elective courses where applicable. For students with a specific interest, some suggested Anthropology electives are:

- biological focus: ANTH 303, 335, 336, and 370
- archaeology focus: ANTH 303, 321, 333, 334, 335, and 336
- cultural focus: ANTH 319, 330, 333, 334, 335, and 336

later semester, it is recommended to take it as soon as possible following the completion of ANTH 300.

Other Notes to Students Preparing to Transfer:

- Many universities require ANTH 341.
- See ASSIST.ORG for the transfer requirements of the institution to which you plan to transfer.
- The CSU system requires every student receiving a bachelor's degree to be knowledgeable about the Constitution of the United States, American history, and state and local government. This requirement is generally known as the American Institutions requirement. Students can complete this requirement at ARC before transferring. The list of approved courses can be found on the ARC website.

Honors Courses (H):

Students with a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or better who complete 15 or more units of Honors coursework earn an Honors Transfer Certificate and can take advantage of honors-to-honors transfer agreements with highly selective colleges and universities, both public and private.
