

Film, Television and Electronic Media AS-T Degree

This program provides students with a major that fulfills the general requirements of the California State University (CSU) or Univ. of California (UC) for transfer to baccalaureate degree programs in film, television, and electronic media. Students with this degree will receive priority admission to the CSU system with junior status. This AS degree comprises lower-division coursework typically required by CSU institutions. This instructional program is designed to train students for skills needed in jobs requiring basic knowledge in Radio, Television or Film Production. Training includes classes in radio, television, film, broadcasting, broadcast and print journalism, editing, and design. Students will be prepared for entry-level jobs in education, government, broadcasting, advertising and public relations, as well as having a base for transfer to a four-year institution.
